

Plan International Redesign

Erica Wang

Project Overview:

The Problem: Several website errors including a convoluted donation page with excessive options, inconsistent page navigation, and a cumbersome dropdown menu made it difficult to align with the nonprofit's goals.

The Solution: By implementing intuitive design solutions, I streamlined the donation process, clarified navigation pathways, and simplified menu interactions, resulting in a more user-friendly and accessible website experience.

My Role: User Experience & Interface Design, User Research

Tools Used: Figma, Trello

Time Frame: 4 weeks

What Is Plan International?

Plan International is dedicated to breaking the cycle of poverty by focusing on the empowerment of young girls in vulnerable communities and emergency situations worldwide.

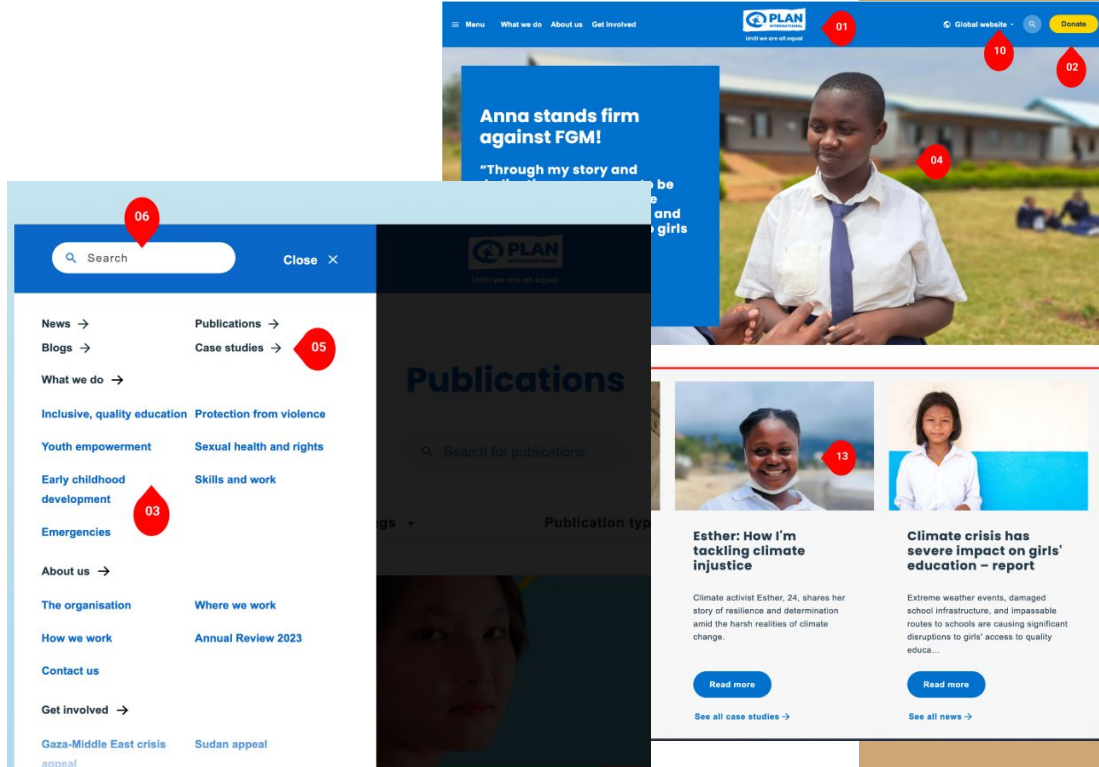

Through comprehensive education, healthcare, and protection programs, they strive to unlock the vast potential of every girl, ensuring they have the opportunities to learn, lead, decide, and thrive.

UX Design Process

Heuristic Evaluation

1. Move logo to the left of the screen
2. Make donation button more noticable
3. Dropdown menu too cluttered and overwhelming
4. Personalized story is a nice touch/allows user to empathize
5. Arrows look weird
6. Search bar in menu is useful
7. Needs constraints

Nadia's co-worker informs her about the earthquake crisis in Syria currently affecting many children and young girls

She feels for these children and wonders if there is a way she can help

Nadia finds Plan International while searching the web for information. She is able to read up on the Syrian earthquake crisis as well as browses the other donation/contribution options.

Nadia is thrilled that she can donate to the Syrian earthquake crisis as well as sponsor a young girl in Sudan.

Definition

Problem Statement - Plan International aims to enhance the lives of young girls in vulnerable communities and emergency sites through philanthropy and volunteer engagement. How might we use our website to create persuasive calls for aid to better reach more volunteers and donors, and simplify the donation process to be as seamless as possible.

Value Proposition Statement - “Empowering Young Girls, Transforming Futures”

Site Map

PRIORITIES

- Clear language
- Logical placement organization of pathways
- Fast and easy navigation of information and news

Early Development + Wireframes

User Feedback

"The website feels too large, it takes forever to scroll down the screen."

"I like how the drop down arrow expands to show your options!"

"Adding another way to indicate you can click, maybe a highlight or underline, would be nice?"

"I wish the donation options were laid out so you could see all of them before donating."
